TREVOR BRICKNELL

Trevor Bricknell was raised and spent most of his life in the Longford area.

He was a longstanding member of the Longford Racing Club and later joined the committee, until it's integration with the TTC.

As a local owner/trainer the Longford track was his home base.

In 1988 when racing returned to Longford for the St Patrick's Day Bicentenary meeting Trevor was again heavily involved. The crowd support of that event showed that racing could be successful at Longford.

Trevor's family have been proud sponsors of his memorial race since the Longford New Year's Day meeting was reintroduced in 1991.

2024 marks the 33rd running of the T A Bricknell Handicap - a race named in honour of the late Trevor Bricknell and proudly sponsored by Mrs Sue Bricknell and family.

Trevor was a former committee member of the Longford Racing Club and a local owner/trainer. The family are proud to continue their association with this race meeting.

NORTHERN

The Northern Midlands Council is pleased to support the holding of the 2024 New Years Day Race Meeting at the Longford Race Course

We wish you all an enjoyable day !

Robin Archer

Robin who passed away in July 2016 was a member of the Longford Race Club for over 60 years. Robin was always interested in racing and had several horses who were well placed at Longford. He spent time as Chairman and was on the Committee for many years until his death.

In later years he teamed up with his good racing friend Jim Osborne and together they fought to retain the New Years Day meeting at Longford, constantly hassling the Club for more Stake money for the meeting. It was his hope that Longford continued the picnic meeting for the relaxed atmosphere and for the enjoyment of the local people and racing enthusiasts.

CHAIRMAN'S TIPS

No.3 Thunberg, No.1 Elite Legacy
No.5 Fairy Magic, No.6 Popilita

Jim Osborne was born on 20/04/1917 in Victoria and arrived in Launceston in 1926 with his mother Dorothy, older sister Muriel and younger brother Frank. Jim attended Scotch College in 1927 and did well academically. Jim left school at 16 to work as an apprentice wool classer, then began 3 years working for Norman Nicolson who became a great mentor to Jim. The job involved riding horses and hence his passion for horses began. At 18 Jim started work for Websters and during these years he had many good horses including Black Eagle, Aintree and Ardent. Jim was Secretary of the Midland Hunt Club for many years and in charge of the hounds, hunting was another passion at the time.

Racing began to play a big part in his life and he became very passionate and purchased two yearlings in Sydney (Dignitella and Musical Memory). Jim gradually played a bigger part in the industry and served on the Tasmanian Turf Club Committee for 26 years retiring when he turned 80 and was later made a Life Member of the Club. Jim was also a committeeman of Thoroughbred Breeders organisation for a number of years and was also awarded life membership.

Jim rode as an amateur jockey and in 1951 had one of his memorable moments when he rode his own horse Bustam over the big live fences at Deloraine and won in near record time. Jim bred and raced many successful horses his best being SUNSET CLAUSE, HIGHLAND LAKE and ALMOST SPRING. In past years he races horses with the Armidale Stud Syndicate and won with WITH DECORUM in the Devonport Cup.

In 1991 the Longford Grandstand was gutted by fire with no money to replace it. Jim called a meeting at Longford to gain community support to rebuild the grandstand. He had to raise $140,000 and have the grandstand up for New Years day. Everyone said it was impossible but nothing is impossible for Jim. The W J Osbourne grandstand is a testament to his hard work and determination to keep racing history alive in Tasmania.
